THURSDAY, FEB. 1, 1877.

The report of our foreign commerce for 1876 makes a handsome showing for the increase of exports over imports, the total of the former being in gold values $575,608,040, against $497,263,737 in 1875, while the latter have shrunken to $426,612,706 from $534,777,091, in 1875. The exports of specie alone, on the other hand, were only $47,973,752, against $70,108,852, in 1875, while the imports show a gain of over 40 per cent—from $24,321,056 to $34,679,307.

INDUSTRIAL PROSPECTS IN NEW ENGLAND.—The Boston Commercial Bulletin of Jau. 27, states that there has been a great increase in the last two weeks in the number of new manufacturing enterprises reported, and in the announcements of resumption by manufacturers that had partially or wholly suspended work. It says: "Our cantact with the manufacturers of New England is an intimate one, and we know we speak the minds of many of the most intelligent and enterprising of them, when we say that there is a growing anticipation of a bet-
